Press Invitation

HKPOP releases latest epidemic survey tomorrow (Feb 14)

In light of possible community outbreak of the Wuhan Pneumonia, Hong Kong Public Opinion Program (HKPOP) under the Hong Kong Public Opinion Research Institute (HKPORI) is collaborating with the School of Public Health of The University of Hong Kong to conduct another wave of epidemic survey under the “Community Democracy Project: Community Health Module” or “Community Health Project” in short (民主社區計劃：社區健康單元). The survey gauges people’s comprehensive views including their worry and self-assessment of getting infected, supply and reserve of protective masks, appraisal of the government’s handling of the disease, impacts of the border closure, parents’ views on school closure, and so on. The preliminary results will be released this Friday (February 14) afternoon. The media is invited to publicize the survey website at **http://bit.ly/poricdch** and to send representatives to attend the press conference, details are as follows:

Date: February 14, 2020 (Friday)
