香港調酒師公會主席侯翠珊指出，「因為限聚措施分類太多，而且朝令夕改，坊間很多食肆在執行上都相當困難，加上每個政府部門的執法準則都不一樣，令飲食業無所適從。正式持牌場所處處受制，導至很多客人轉去沒有持牌的夜店消遣，與業界所想的背道而馳，亦令行內人更難生存，很多員工亦會因為被迫接種疫苗而選擇轉行。我希望政府正視問題，多理解民間聲音。」

Cat Hou Chui Shan, Chairperson of Bartenders and Mixologists Union of Hong Kong, observed, “Many restaurants have difficulties in enforcing the group gathering restrictions because there are too many categories and so many policy changes from time to time. Moreover, the enforcement criteria also varies across different government departments, making the catering industry hard to follow. Licensed premises are subject to restrictions at all times, many customers therefore turn to unlicensed nightclubs for entertainment, which is contrary to the industry’s wish and makes it even more difficult for the industry to survive. Many staff would also choose to leave the industry if they are forced to take vaccinations. I hope the Government will address the problem and hear the voice of the people.”
