香港持牌酒吧會所聯會會長梁立仁認為：「政府現階段應該放寬酒吧、卡拉ok、夜總會等處所的硬性疫苗規定，並與一般餐廳食肆睇齊，不需要強制接種第一劑疫苗。我們已經多次提出，政府提高市民對接種疫苗的信心，是責無旁貸的，而控制疫情亦不應與某類行業的限聚措施相互捆綁。如果當局打壓正規持牌處所，只會適得其反，導致更多無牌處所出現，製造社區隱患。政府應認真聆聽市民的聲音，不要再為達到某個目的，自圓其說，罔顧民意的聲音和業界的生死。」

Ben Leung Lap-yan, Charter President of the Licensed Bar and Club Association of Hong Kong proposes, “The government should relax the mandatory vaccination requirements for bars, karaoke and nightclubs and bring them on par with restaurants in general, which do not require mandatory first dose vaccination. We have repeatedly pointed out that the government has an obligation to boost public confidence in vaccination, and that the control of the epidemic should not be bundled with gathering restrictions for certain types of businesses. It would be counter-productive to suppress licensed premises, because it would create more unlicensed premises and hidden hazards. The government should seriously take into account people’ views and stop making excuses to achieve hidden goals. It must not ignore the voice of the people and the life and death calls of the industry.”
