就近期限聚令的執行方面，香港教育中心商會副主席任偉豪指出：「本月17日傍晚，警方於銅鑼灣的一間餐廳外進行名為『松塔』的跨部門突擊封鎖行動，向現場229人發出限聚令告票，罰款總共超過100萬。這不禁令人質疑，如果政府只是想降低感染風險，手法上是否有必要如此大費周章使用這麼多的警力呢？其實可否先派出兩三個警員去提示他們要遵從限聚令，然後才向不聽從指示的市民發出告票呢？而且在灣仔區的另一邊，正在進行人群洶湧千萬倍的書展，這也許會令人覺得『只許州官放火，不許百姓點燈。』」

On the implementation of group gathering bans, Vice Chairman of The Hong Kong Chamber of Education Centres Yam Wai Ho observed, “On the 17th of this month, the police conducted an inter-departmental blitz lockdown operation outside a restaurant in Causeway Bay. They issued penalty tickets to 229 people at the scene with a total fine of more than a million dollar. If the government just wants to reduce the risk of infection, is it necessary for the police to spend so much time and effort? In fact, is it possible to just send two to three police officers to remind people of the need to comply with the group gathering ban before issuing the penalty tickets? On the other side of Wan Chai District, there was a book fair going on many thousand times more crowded. This may make people feel that ‘only the state officials are free to set fires, while common people are forbidden to even light a lamp.’”
