獨立評論人潘麒智指出：「由於香港疫情持續平穩，不少市民已回復外出消費；失業率持續下降，當中零售業及餐飲業的情況明顯改善，加上政府已開始發放電子消費券，相信會進一步支持本港經濟。早前被特區政府列為高風險地區的菲律賓及印尼，已接種疫苗的外傭有望周內入境香港。我相信限聚令亦應該放寬，讓香港經濟盡快恢復。」

Independent commentator KC Poon observed, “As the epidemic continues to stabilise in Hong Kong, many people have resumed their spending activities. The unemployment rate continues to drop, the situation in the retail and catering industries has improved significantly. The government has also started to issue the electronic consumption vouchers, which is helping the economy. Vaccinated foreign domestic helpers from the Philippines and Indonesia, which were previously classified as high-risk areas by the government, are expected to enter Hong Kong within a week. I think the restriction on gathering should be relaxed so that the Hong Kong economy can recover as soon as possible.”
